WASHINGTON PARK RACING.

Flying Torpedo, under a strenuous drive all through the last sixteenth, won the Midway Stakes yesterday at Washington Park in a stirring finish by a short head from Wild Pirate, with Harry New a beaten-off third. It was generally conceded that Flying Torpedo was the best of the quartet that faced the barrier and he was held at 7 to 10 in the betting. Many shrewd bettors, however, strung their money on Wild Pirate as it was whispered about that he was never fitter in his life.

To a good start Flying Torpedo at once went to the front, closely attended by Harry New with Digby Bell bringing up the rear. Flying Torpedo increased his lead to two and one-half lengths while going down the backstretch and held that advantage until just after turning for home, where Harry New retired and Wild Pirate moved up almost on even terms with him. Near the last eighth Wild Pirate was running head and head with Flying Torpedo, the two fighting it out to the wire. Wild Pirate stood a long stretch drive in race horse fashion, and undoubtedly ran the best race of his life. Harry New was a keen contender for about seven furlongs, but fell away fast when the deciding drive came in the last sixteenth. Digby Bell was never an important factor. The winner was run up $1,300 over his entered price and bid in.

Jack Rattlin proved himself to be one of the best sprinters of his age now in training in the west by taking the second race, a dash of six furlongs, in a big romp by five lengths from Herodiade, which beat Burnie Bunton one for second place. Jack Rattlin set a fast pace in the first half and when well straightened for home came away and won as his rider pleased. Herodiade showed to his best form and finished strongly. Burnie Bunton lacked that keen turn of speed that characterizes her racing on a fast track and could never get up. She finished with determination, however. C. B. Campbell was an important factor for about a half mile and then fell away badly beaten.

Rasselas was much the best in the first race and simply ran away from his field in the last quarter winning under slight restraint by one length from Loone, which beat Semicolon two for second place. Loone finished strongly and was much the best of the others. Semicolon tired fast in the last sixteenth and would have lost third place to Trebor in a stride or two. Trebor is rounding into his best form and is worthy of attention from now on. Cougar showed early speed.

The fourth race went to Corrigan with consummate ease. He led from flag-fall to finish, winning in a canter by two and one-half lengths from Frangible, which beat Vulcan two for second place. Frangible was under keen pressure all through the last quarter, but could not close up on Corrigan. Vulcan ran a dull race. He was apparently out of the contest for the first half, but closed up some around in the last quarter. Prowl ran far below expectations. He showed well for a half mile only, and then gradually fell out of the contest.

The light-weighted Emir beat Maghoni a neck in a sharp last sixteenth drive in the fifth race, a dash of five furlongs for two-year-olds. Adirondack led by a fair margin for a half mile and then retired in favor of Farmer Jim, but in the last eighth Emir, closely pressed by Maghoni, moved up fast and he began tiring, finishing an indifferent third. Mirance was well spent when a furlong out. Peat, suddenly recovering his best form, took the finale by a length from Evelyn Byrd, which beat Colonel Ballantyne two and a half for second place. Jessie Jarboe fell at the start.

An unusually large gathering was present and witnessed an excellent day's sport.

The track was drying out fast, but will be very slow at the best today.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Jockey Coburn was yesterday suspended indefinitely by the judges from riding for any one but

Mr. G. C. Bennett, to whom he is under contract. This punishment was given the jockey for his assault on jockey Buchanan in the jockeys' room after the Maywood Stakes had been run, and in which race Coburn, claims Buchanan repeatedly crossed him, thereby ruining the chances of his mount, Savable.

M. H. Tichenor, failing in the attempt to see Jaubert win in his colors, became disgusted with the horse and has presented him to Clint De Witt, in whose colors he will run in future.

C. R. Ellison disposed of Ben Battle, ch. g. 5, by Eberlee-Battle Belle, yesterday to Alex. Shields for $2,000. The horse will shortly be sent east to join the other horses now raced there by Mr. Shields.

T. P. Hayes was a visitor at the track yesterday. He arrived from St. Louis in company with G. L. Crawford.

G. C. Bennett returned yesterday from Nashville where he has been inspecting the yearlings owned by him. He reports them all doing well and as a promising looking lot of youngsters.

Yesterday afternoon the following was deemed a good guess at the probable field of starters for the Young Handicap: Six Shooter, 120, Jiminez 118, Orontas 116, Argregor 115, Aladdin and Wyeth 112 each, Lucien Appleby 109, Abe Frank 107, Hermencia 106, Wild Pirate and Glen Water 95 each, Scarlet Lily 94 and Hunter Raine 93. Of these Wyeth and Glen Water were put down as doubtful starters. Of course the state of the track today will be the determining factor that may keep some of this list from starting and of sending others to the post instead.

John Mackey, manager for J. B. Haggin and W. C. de B. Lopez, left last night for California. The latter, before his departure, was approached by Mr. Drake, who tried to purchase from him the good handicap horse, Articulate. Mr. de B. Lopez explained to Drake that he had placed the horse in the hands of R. A. Smith, with instructions to do with him as he saw fit. Should Mr. Smith decide to sell he is at liberty to do so, and as Mr. Drake is desirous of becoming the owner of Articulate, it would not be surprising to hear in the course of the next few days that he had given Smith a fancy price for the horse.

W. Walden will ship this morning to his farm at Middleburg, Md., all the horses which raced in his colors at Washington Park. The filly Queen Elizabeth, which was thought to have an eye destroyed by a blow from jockey Blake's whip in the Quickstep Stakes, is reported to be on the improving list and hopes are entertained for the restoration of the filly's sight.

Steve L'Hommiedieu took a hand in the boosting game yesterday and bid up Flying Torpedo, which won The Midway Stakes, entered to be sold for $2,300. The ex-horse owner and plunger bid him up to $3,500, L. Ezell retaining the horse with an additional bid of $100. Peat, which won the last race, was bid up $500 over his entered price of $1,000 by A. Simons and, as in the case of Flying Torpedo, was retained by his owner with an advance bid of $5.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

About the first of August Barney Schreiber will sell a lot of Sain and Balgown yearlings at auction. He has between thirty and forty at Woodlands and will probably sell most of them. The performances of Otis, Schwalbe, Sofala, Dewey and other good ones should serve to make owners eager to secure these young horses. The sale will probably take place at St. Louis.

Mayor Fleischmann, of Cincinnati, has sold his half interest in Blues to Frank Farrell, whereby the latter becomes sole owner of the good horse.

J. H. G., Chicago. It was only 8 to 5 show Croix d'Or at post time, owing to his having been well backed to run as good as third.

S. G. A., Chicago. Americano was 1 to 4 to show.

Disqualified for foul. Time, 12, 24 1/2, 49 1/2, 1:15, 1:41 1/2, 1:53 1/2.

Winner—Br. g. by St. Andrew—Daffodil (trained by W. Brien).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Daffadown dilly proved a stayer, got away in front and remained there practically unattended throughout, and can beat better ones. Courtenay was crowded on the first turn, and with clear sailing closed a big gap and finished fast. Bar Le Duc displayed improved speed and stamina and stuck to his work very gamely at the end. Lady Iona was pulled up slightly on the stretch turn, as if crowded by Courtenay, and a claim of foul was allowed. Knight Templar had no chance with a bad jockey.

Scratched—31552 Dr. Korber, 108; 33537 Carrier Pigeon, 99; 33406 Outsider, 96; 33417 Adelaide Prince, 94.

Winner—Br. f. by St. George—Vantage (trained by C. Hughes).

Went to post at 3:00. At post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Irene Lindsey, from a lucky start, easily outpaced the field from the start and won going away. Flirtineer ran well and held on unusually well at the end. Ondurdis went well and should improve. Sweet Clover, handicapped on a hard track, got away poorly and did not show much early speed and was badly interfered with in the stretch when closing up strongly. Annie Grace finished well. Ohio Girl, away badly, closed a big gap after running around the big field on the turns.

Scratched—33556 Sedition, 97.

Winner—Ch. c. by Kingston—Editha (trained by J. Rowe).

Went to post at 3:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Hurst Park led from the start and came away strongly in the last furlong and at the weights was best. Africander trailed to the stretch and, after being compelled to go wide on the turn, finished with a rush, but was palpably outstayed at the end by the winner. Invincible came fast in the last furlong and caught Athelroy tiring after an early effort to outpace Hurst Park. Red Knight, outclassed and outrun all the way, was yet well up at the end.

Time, 12, 24 1/2, 50, 1:15, 1:41, 1:54.

Winner—B. g. by Goldfinch—Queen Bess, by Marden (trained by G. B. Morris).

Went to post at 3:45. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Old England cut out the running and appeared almost a certain winner to the stretch, where he commenced to tire. He however stuck to his work gamely in spite of a weak finish on Shaw's part, but was allowed to win by his stable companion, Homestead. The latter was pulling to him in the last furlong, and at the weights was easily the best. Gold Cure, which got away poorly, ran from last place to the leaders in a hundred yards on the backstretch, then went wide on the turn and was generally messed about, but ran a cracking good race. Emshée was a contender for seven furlongs only.

Scratched—33131 Trump, 111; 33478 Goldsmith, 111.

Overweights—Connecticut, 3 pounds.

Homestead, show, 2 to 5. Gold Cure, show, evens.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

There is every indication that Frederick Gebhard will play a prominent part in racing affairs next year. Mr. Gebhard, whose racing interests have been confined almost exclusively to steeplechasing for the last few years, has been a liberal buyer of yearlings this season. He has recently made arrangements whereby George Hill will train the stable and the horses in training, which include already been placed in Mr. Hill's charge. Nine yearlings will also be turned over to Mr. Hill in the near future to receive their early education in a racing way, and with a fair share of luck the Gebhard stable may be expected to gather some of the turf plums in coming seasons.

The London Sportsman of June 2 gives a table of the principal English sires whose get up from March 17 to June 1 have won £1,500 or upward. Persimmon leads, with £10,642, and then in order follow: Carbine, £9,385; St. Simon, £3,752; Hampton, £3,693; Isinglass, £2,918; Royal Sovereign, £2,855; Ayrshire, £2,939; Matchmaker, £2,738; St. Serf, £2,535; Sheen, £2,488; St. Frusquin, £2,123; Freemason, £1,970; Common, £1,941; Melton, £1,663; Prisoner, £1,625; Juggler, £1,729; Bend Or, £1,501.

Owing to the death of Edward Bell, former Park Commissioner, the horses of his brother, Louis V. Bell, will for the remainder of the season run in the name of his trainer, James McCormick.

During the season of 1901 Mr. Bell's horses ran in McCormick's name on account of the death of his mother, which occurred early in the year, and it was as McCormick's entry that Alcedo won the Suburban Handicap.

So far this season the horses have raced in the name and colors of Mr. Bell, and he recently engaged the services of Rice, the most promising of the apprentice riders now before the eastern racing public.

A dispatch from Lexington, July 7, says: "The first yearling tried out this year in Kentucky was set down for a quarter at the association track here today, it being the bay colt Merry Pioneer, the half-brother to George C. Bennett's crack Aladdin. He worked a quarter in 24 seconds, going the first eighth in 12 seconds. Merry Pioneer belongs to Dan O'Brien, who bought him for $2,000 at the recent Melbourne Stud sale in New York, he being one of the colts that were in the wreck on the Long Island Railroad, and sold cheap on that account. So far he has shown no signs in his work of being in any way hurt.

OUT OF TOWN ORDERS WIRED AT 9 A. M.

CORRIGAN, 5-1; PEAT, 5-1, WON.

Of Peat we said to all our subscribers to plunge for the limit, that it was the best thing of the day. We also instructed all clients to plunge for the limit on Corrigan and Flying Torpedo. Our other good things were withdrawn.

Friday, July 11, at Washington Park.

First Race (4 to 10 to 1), plunge for the limit bet. Here is a good thing that has worked fast enough to beat anybody's horse, handicap division, not barred, will have a good rider up and barring accident should win in a gallop. Third Race, 15 to 40 to 1 shot. Here is a two-year-old that the public and the handicappers have overlooked entirely. This one will also win in a canter.
Turf followers, remember the long shots are winning daily at Washington Park. We are in great winning form. Under no circumstances fail to get our good things Friday and Saturday at Washington Park.

FOR SATURDAY

We know of two horses that have received a special preparation for the races in which they will start. The public estimate on them is entirely out of line, and they are bound to be at liberal prices in the opening betting. We have such positive information on these two horses that we are convinced only an accident can prevent their winning and our followers cashing. Whether you are a winner or loser you cannot afford to miss this opportunity. These horses having been prepared away from the present scene of racing makes this information exclusive. Both will be 15 to 1.

FORM LETTER ON SALE AT 9 A. M.

Also sold at Great Northern, Grand Pacific, Wellington and Sherman Hotels in rotunda at news stands; Kolman's cigar store, 267 Dearborn St.; cigar stand in Adams Express Building, 185 Dearborn St., and news stand, northwest corner Clark and Madison Sts.

FRED ERNEST.

I wired my friends nothing yesterday. My experience of Wednesday, when I sent "Compass" to all my subscribers and who would have positively won except for the accident caused by the slippery track, made me wary. The track conditions were but little better yesterday and I concluded that I could not afford to jeopardize our mutual interests by wiring you Thursday. It is in this manner I retain my clients year in and year out. If in my mind, there is the slightest chance of our losing, I will not wire. Under my method of doing business except you win. I don't ask money in advance for my information, and my only charge is that you bet $2 for me on the horse I wire you. Be prompt in your remittances and treat me honestly, and I will regain you the losses you have made following other information in the past. Together with my track experts, I KNOW THE "WORKOUTS" AND CONDITIONS of the horses, and through our unlimited acquaintance with owners, trainers and jockeys know what "is doing." I positively will not wire except sure we will win. Since July 1st I have wired but six horses. Four won at long odds, one ran third, beaten two noses after being backed from 25 to 1 to 10 to 1, and the other (Compass on Thursday) lost only by stumbling and unseating her rider. My assertions in every instance will be verified by a glance at my past announcements in these columns.

Telegrams sent in my private code only. If you can use this kind of information let me hear from you. Enclose 25 cents in your first letter to guarantee me against loss by the refusal of telegrams. Address

Fred Ernest, P. O. Box 182, Chicago.

Winner—B. c. by Pirate of Penzance—Black Eye (trained by D. C. Korber).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Rasselas was the best, ran Semicolon into submission in the first half and then came away as his rider pleased. Loone finished strongly after making up much ground in the last quarter. Semicolon was well spent when a furlong out and would have lost third place in another stride. Trebor closed up ground fast in the last eighth. He is running to his best form and bears watching from now on. Cougar had enough after six furlongs had been run. Della Ostrand showed early speed.

 Winner—B. c. by Masetto—Aileen Aroon (trained by A. L. Aste).
 Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won in a canter; second driving. Mosketto was held at the post and nearly left, but went after the field, got through luckily next to the rail on the first turn, was then skillfully waited with behind the pacemaker and came at the end like a flash. He was much the best and is a very useful horse. Prince Richard, apparently outrun and lacking in early speed, finished strongly and wore Past down at the end. The latter tired after a hard brush with the winner. WisSENDINE, much improved, was always prominent and held on well in the final drive. C. Rosenfeld was going well in the last quarter. The Pride of Surrey went a fast seven furlongs and tired.

 Winner—Ch. h. by St. Blaise—Woodflower (trained by W. S. Laird).
 Went to post at 3:02. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. St. Wood was best, raced Little Veronica into exhaustion, outgamed Satirist when it came to a drive, finished strongly and was going away at the end. Satirist began slowly, had to go all around his field to get up, and made up a lot of ground, but tired when called on. Lelia Barr stood a long hard drive and got up just in time to get third place. Junaetta ran in improved form. Little Veronica quit in the last quarter. It was not Gold Fox's kind of a track.

Time, 24, 49, 1:02.
 Winner—B. f. by Appomattox—Frances Nichols (trained by H. Oots).
 Went to post at 3:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. First Mason was best, was never bothered after taking command and came away with ease in the last quarter. Springwater showed improvement and was well handled. Harold Keeling got away tangled up, made up much ground in the last furlong and caught Stub tiring at the end. The latter was hard ridden all the way. Castus is worth remembering in this kind of company and showed speed for the first half mile. Bank Street seems to do best on a heavy track.
 Scratched—Fuego, 112; 33269 Bodell, 109; 33457 Tommy Knight, 102.
 First Mason, show, out. Springwater, show, 4 to 1. Harold Keeling, show, 8 to 5. Stub, show, out. Bank Street, show, 3 to 5.

 Winner—Ch. g. by St. Florian—Prosperity (trained by F. Regan).
 Went to post at 4:08. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Sir Florian ran around the leaders at the first turn, caught Baronet in the stretch, outgamed him when it came to a drive and was drawing away at the end. Baronet showed the most early speed and was hustled along all the way. He tired when it came to a drive. Opuntia closed a big gap and finished strongly. He was out off a couple of times and is at his best just now. Brisac ran his race. Lamp Globe was cut off on the backstretch.
 Sir Florian, show, out. Opuntia, show, evens.

 Winner—B. f. by Wagner—Violette (trained by John May).
 Went to post at 4:38. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving and all out; second the same. Louise Collier showed the most early speed and opened up a winning gap in the first half, but was tiring in the last quarter and had to be ridden to the limit to stall off Dumont. The latter came very fast in the last furlong and would have won in another stride. George Perry began slowly, but came very strongly in the stretch. He ran the best race of all and would have won in another ten yards. Jakko closed a big gap. Edna Fitzallen was taken wide when turning into the stretch.
 Overweights—Louise Collier, 1 pound.

 Winner—Ch. f. by Galon d'Or—Gurgle (trained by Fred Berlew).
 Went to post at 5:11. At post 7 minutes. Start straggling. Won ridden out; second the same. Mint Bed was lucky in getting away in the front rank, showed plenty of speed and raced Commena into submission, then lost ground in coming to the stretch, but came again and was going away at the end. Commena was away in motion and was hustled along for the entire route. Julia Junkin was away poorly and had to go around her field to get up, but closed a big gap and finished strongly, and would probably have won with an equal break. Iridescent had a rough journey and was also the victim of a poor ride. Trio was practically left.
 Scratched—33443 Reap, 99.
 Overweights—Iridescent, 2 pounds; Basileus, 4.
 Mint Bed, show, 4 to 5. Commena, show, 4 to 1. Julia Junkin, show, out.

 Winner—B. g. by Getaway—High Nun (trained by E. Moore).
 Went to post at 5:45. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won handily; second the same. Hie Away was off in his stride and showed the most speed, but was under a drive all of the last sixteenth. Foneda had the worst of the start and was weakly ridden. All Saints nearly ran to her mark. Curtsey was out-classed. Filibuster showed early speed, but quit.
